I am very concerned about the new political from a coalition of non-profit groups and telemarketing plans to the FCC which would void Wisconsin no-call law.

I have a phone for private business but telemarketing calls. Please ask the Federal Communications Commission to process
our Wisconsin no-call law
Thank You

My Comment to the FCC

I do not feel any of Wisconsin Statutes & Administrative Code should be changed to make it easier for people to solicit my business. I pay enough taxes to keep these nuisances from calling me and interrupting my time & pleasure. When I put my no solicitation sign up on my front door they stopped bothering me. I pay taxes on my home. I pay taxes, taxes & taxes on my communication system both landlines and cell phones. I lock up my cell phone.

I would also like to prohibit calls from polls, surveys and political entities, donations & non-profits, and individuals acting on his/her own behalf.

Start listening to the consumer and stop taking money from & listening to the lobbyist that wish to change the present standing on this no-call statute in Wisconsin. I pay $20.25 per month for my telephone before I am charged for the calls I make

What alone should make my argument against these calls. Stop bothering me.

We definitely want the Wisconsin No Call List to continue! We wish that non-profit organizations were also included in the No Call List.

If 1.775 million folks from Wisconsin signed-up to be on the No Call List, that should tell you that people do not want to be bothered by tele-marketers in their home

What is more annoying then to answer the phone and no one is on the line)because you weren't the first to answer the tele-marketer's dial-up) or to have your meal interrupted by a tele-marketer!

KEEP THE WISCONSIN NO CALL LIST!!!

I am a retired general internist. During my active practice years, a telephone call during supper, or later in the evening was often a call to action in response to a sick person. Now that I am free of that responsibility, I can't tell you how much I appreciate the quietness of my home in the evening. Please don't take away the No Call List. Preserve our privacy and peace and quiet at home.

Sincerely,

My Comment to the FCC

Leave Wisconsin No Call list as it is.
Wisconsin citizens should decide what calls are acceptable, and those who are on the NoCall list made that decision.

Interstate special interest groups should not interfere with Wisconsin's statutes and administrative codes! (Nor should they dictate to us!)
